Export Control

Dear customer,

Please note that to the best of our knowledge our cellular, short range and GNSS products do not fall under the EU Dual Use Directive 388/2012 and:

u-blox cellular products fall under US EAR Commercial Control List specific category ECCN 5A991.g. or 5A992.c. For further detail, please send your request to peter.zimmermann@u-blox.com.

u-blox Short Range products fall under US EAR Commercial Control List specific category ECCN 5A992.c.

u-blox GNSS products fall under US EAR Commercial Control List specific category ECCN 7A994.

You should not purchase u-blox products if:

- the u-blox product is or could be destined for use in the development, production, maintenance, identification, operation, distribution of ABC weapons or missiles for ABC weapons or
- the customer is located in Iran, Syria, Cuba, North Korea, Belarus, territories occupied by Russia in Ukraine or Sudan or
- the customer is located in an UN Arms Embargoed Country and the end use is for a military purpose or could be for a military purpose (f.ex. the customer is a military authority) or
- the u-blox product is specifically adapted or developed for a military purpose or for military training purposes.

This letter does not relieve you to comply with other applicable export control regulations (e.g. ITAR arms control regulations and arms or trade embargoes) and u-blox general terms and conditions of sale, retrievable on our website and/or the quote.

Kind regards,

u-blox AG
